

February 4, 2008

Even though there is Global Warming, it doesn't take record winter cold to put thousands out of Electrical Power. Are Your Business and Home Protected?

Reading Electric Critical Power Solutions

Photo of Niagara Falls; winter of 1848

READING ELECTRIC is a leading supplier of electro-mechanical equipment & services for Industrial and Commercial Customers, specializing in providing Total Solutions Packages for Critical Power Requirements to safeguard the Industry's profitability from electrical power outages. These Standby Emergency Systems are engineered to continuously monitor the electrical current in a facility and automatically come on-line if the power is interrupted, protecting operations, security, and fire protection systems. These Standby Emergency Systems ensure that operations continue and assets are safeguarded.

READING ELECTRIC has provided complete Critical Power Systems and maintenance services throughout eastern Pennsylvania for Municipalities, Schools, Hospitals, Manufacturing Facilities, and Power Generation Facilities for over 30 years.

The READING ELECTRIC Critical Power Staff configures the emergency equipment to provide an attractive 'Return on Investment' utilizing the latest technology and products. READING ELECTRIC provides Turnkey Services for system design, site installation and commissioning standby power systems. Critical service support is available, providing 24/7/365 emergency services.

Let READING ELECTRIC provide you with a "no-cost assessment of your Critical Power Requirements". For additional information contact READING ELECTRIC. Phone: 610-929-5777; Fax: 610-929-1670; Email: info@readingelectric.com or Visit our Website at www.readingelectric.com

